anti-counterfeiting & product security technologies

The November 2019 ID WORLD directory is a unique opportunity for all component and solution providers in the field of anti-counterfeiting, authentication and product security technologies to reinforce their message to the market. Focusing on the players active in the fields of advanced technologies for instantly validating product authenticity, Sustainable Development & the ID Publications will feature the greatly anticipated "TOP 25 SUPPLIERS OF ANTI-COUNTERFEITING TECHNOLOGY" directory.

Communicate your company's technologies and products to pharmaceutical companies, manufacturers of luxury goods, the food and retail industries, security documents and critical component fabricants and more, as well as governments and potential industry partners involved in this active and constnatly developing technology sector. Companies providing digital authentication, RFID chips, tags and labels, holograms, barcode technology, tamper-evident closures, special inks, nano-materials fixed or handheld readers, printers, recognition equipment, software solutions or any other form of relevant automatic identification technology.
